A LOYAL SERENADE.

The Chiefs in Walting-The Come Star Screnaders-Specches by Mesars. Bowen and Philsbury-The Mayor and the Labor Question-Remarkable Manœuvres-How it Ended-"Dem Niggers Gwine to Lieker Up."

About half-past ten o'clock last night, a body of colored men marching in military order, under command of an epaulicited black captain, and rejoicing in the name of the "Comet Star Light Infantry," repaired with martial music to the office of Three-thousand-dollar Corbin, in Broad, near King street, where several of the har ous magnates of the Republican party, fully charged with whiskey and eloquence, were pa tlently awaiting a serenade. The company was drawn up in line on the edge of the pavement, and the music of the band soon gathered a crowd of perhaps two hundred men, women and boys, with few exceptions of the same color as the inappropriately termed light infantry.

When our reporter reached the scene the first speakers had had their say-among whom we learned was the valiant captor of Fort Sumter, now the loyal Adjutant and Inspector-General of the State. Young Moses addressed the assem-blage in his usual florid, patriotic and disinterested style, and was loudly cheered. The band then struck up "Captain Jinks of the Horse Marines" in lively style, which led our reporter to anticipate a speech from the ponderous inspector of Streets-but this was not to be. Instead, there were loud calls for "Bowen," "Bowen." in response to which the immaculate M. C. appeared a ment which the "gentlemen (sic) of the Comet Star Light Infantry" had paid him. He assured them that he would take occasion to address his constituents here in this very City of Charleston, and that in a very few days, in vindication of his course. With this cheering and liberal promise, he excused himself from any further remarks.

which there was a discord of enthusiastic, but wholly unintelligible, shouts for various partie Finally, somebody managed to sound the nam of "old Gilbert Pillsbury" in stentorian tones above the tumult, and our accommodating Mayor poked his head from an uppe He spoke for about ten minutes, with the mild suggestion that some of his hearers were probably laborers-indeed, he would venture to say most of them were laborers. He then launched out into a glorification of the rights and of the nobility labor in general, and of his own persistent and unselfish devotion to the labor interest in particular, concluding with congratulations addressed to the crowd on the great triumph which the inboring men had recently achieved, and on the revolution which the last few days had witnessed in this city in connection with the labor question. These remarks, of course, were halled with lou-

Another tune by the band—"Company, right dress!" "Touch clows on the right!" "Right face!" "Forward, March!" "File Right!" And then the black squads went marching and coun-termarching in the middle of the street, their leader meantime whisking about his sword in a very dangerous fashion, and finally giving satisfactory evidence of his proficiency in manœuvres, by bringing his command in single file to the front door of the Corbin wigwam, the "gentlemen of the Comet Star Light Infantry" filed gallantly in; for what our reporter would not have suspected, but for the volunteered suggestion of an unmilitary but knowing darkey, who shrewdly surmised that "dem niggers was gwine to licker up."

At this stage of the proceedings the assemblage left, and it is to be presumed that the Comet Star serenade shortly thereafter fizzled out

THE FLOUR INSPECTORSHIP-MR. C. N. AVE. RILL ARRESTED AGAIN-HE IS CARRIED BEFORE JUDGE CARPENTER ON A WRIT OF HARCAS CORPUS— THE JUDGE ADVISES ALL, PARTIES INTERESTED NOT TO INTERFERE WITH MR. AVERILL -- Vestorday morning Mr. C. N. Averill, Flour Inspector, was again arrested, by two policemen, upon the charge of violating the ordinance "to prevent or punish any person who may exercise, or attempt to exercise, the duties of any municipal office, unless he shall have been duly elected to the same." He was carried before Captain Hendricks. City Attorney, &c., D. T. Corbin was on hand, an offered to take the same bond which was required at the previous arrest, which Mr. Averill declined to give. Mr. Averill then applied through his counsel, Messrs. Wilkinson & Miles, to Judge Carpenter for a writ of habeas corpus, which was granted by the Judge and made returnable immeintely; but at the request, of the City Attorney for time to prepare a return, I o'clock was a nounced as the hour to hear the case, at Judge Carpenter's house.

At the hour appointed, his Honor the Judge, C. N. Averlil, C. R. Miles, Wilkinson & Gilchrist, D. T. Corbin, Mayor Pillsbury, Captain Hendricks Magistrate Mackey, and Alderman Barrow, were present, and the hearing of the case was commenced. The counsel for Mr. Averill argued that the Mayor had no right to arrest, or order the arrest, of their client. The City Attorney read the return to the writs, and argued that vas legal, claiming that Mr. Averill had violated the city ordinance.

At the conclusion of the arguments, Judge Carpenter decided that the arrest of Mr. Averill was illegal. After this decision was announced by his Honor, Magistrate Mackey asked if Mr. Averill could not be arrested again on the same charge on a warrant issued by a magistrate, to which the Judge replied that the question was now in the hands of a higher tribunal, and he would not give an official opinion, but he would advise tha

Late in the afternoon Mr. Averill was rearrested apon a warrant issued by Magistrate Mackey at the instance of M. Caulfield. The warrant charged him with having violated the law ratifled in August, 1860, imposing a penalty of fine or imprisonment upon all persons holding office by military authority, or under the provisional government, who exercised its duties after their successors had been appointed or elected.

Messrs. Miles & Wilkinson appeared for Mr. Averill and clearly proved that he had not in any way violated the law, whereupon he was dis charged by the magistrate.

We are gratified to state that the Flour Inspec-torship troubles may now be considered at end, for the present at least, and we hope that Mr. Averill will not be interfered with in the discharge of the duties of the office of Flour In-
